Code of Ethics

Membership of the QFA Inc is conditional upon adherence to the following code of ethics:

PROTECTION OF ASTROLOGICAL AUTHENTICITY

Members should endeavour to promote the expansion of astrological knowledge by ensuring, when appropriate that the general public is accurately informed about astrological practices. The QFA Inc should discourage claims and attempts by unqualified persons to provide astrological services to the public.

PROFESSIONAL BEHAVIOUR

The integrity of the profession of Astrology must be preserved and members, when acting in their professional capacity, are expected to behave in a manner which enhances and does not damage the status of the profession. The QFA Inc in association with the FAA Inc reserves the right to assess the professional behaviour of members in this regard when called into question.

THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN ASTROLOGER AND CLIENT

A member will first and foremost consider the well-being of the client, endeavouring to enhance the client's understanding of his/her chart in a helpful, constructive manner and placing the welfare of the client above the member's self interest.

PROTECTION OF THE CLIENT

The member will take into account the reliability of the birth data, informing the client, if necessary, of interpretive limitations as a result of possibly inaccurate birth data. When a chart is rectified the client must be informed and the rectification done by a recognised method. The above requirements being satisfied, members will ensure the greatest possible accuracy in the erection of all astrological charts. All astrological reports, oral or written, should be directly concerned with the astrological charts under consideration and should be expressed as simply and unequivocally as possible, with due regard for the understanding and emotional state of the client.

CONFIDENTIALITY

All Astrological consultations shall be considered confidential, unless this confidentiality physically endangers another person. A member of a member association must not convey confidential communication from other astrologers to a client without permission from the authors of such communication. Confidential material about clients, which might lead to their identification, must not be published without their permission.

PREDICTIVE WORK

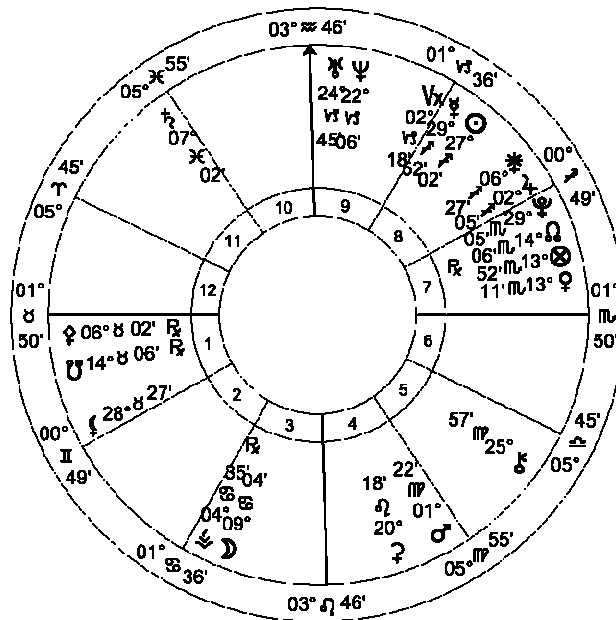

When commissioned to do predictive work, the member will ensure that the client is aware of the distinction between the astrological event, which can be calculated precisely and its interpretation, which depends on the judgement of the individual Astrologer.

THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN MEMBERS

Members of a member association should endeavour to respect, and help where appropriate, fellow members in their pursuit of astrological knowledge, without bias in terms of division of astrology. If a member forms an opinion that a fellow member is behaving unethically and/or unprofessionally s/he should first approach the member in a helpful way. If this proves to be ineffective, the member must (a) warn the fellow member of his/her intention to report the matter to the QFA Inc Committee and (b) should it become necessary, proceed with this action.

PUBLICITY

All members must uphold the integrity of the FAA and its member associations by striving for the highest possible standards of astrological expertise and professional behaviour when representing the FAA or a member association. No person shall represent the FAA unless approved by the National Council or the Executive committee. No person shall represent a member association unless approved by the committee of that association.

QLD FEDERATION of ASTROLOGERS Inc.

19 December 1994, 14:22, AEST -10:00

Brisbane, Qld, Australia, 27S28 153E02

Geocentric, Tropical, Placidus, True Node, Rating "A"

The QFA chart has a strong sense of companionship and the engagement with others (strong 7th, 8th, 9th houses) for the pursuit of common goals.

It is a caring and nurturing association (Moon in Cancer, 3rd house) of like minded individuals who use their knowledge, insight and experience to advance astrology on all levels (Uranus and Neptune on the Midheaven).

It is a hardworking group (Mars in Virgo in the 4th house) that is both creative and practical in its outlook (Chiron in Virgo in the 5th house). It is especially sensitive to the needs of others (Moon in Cancer) and in turn receives much benefit from their participation in its activities (loaded 7th house).

The QFA nature is to be broadminded (Sun and Mercury in Sagittarius) and thus seeks to acquire knowledge in a wide variety of areas.

The structure (Saturn in the 11th house of associations) of the association is very dependent on the constitution and the pathway it develops for itself. This brings benefits to all through the wide participation of its members using their own skills and knowledge (South Node in the 1st house).

Its success will come through a planned and practical approach to achieving its goals by engaging all in a collective approach to advancing astrology (North Node and Part of Fortune in the 7th house).
